DO IT NOW.
When you've got a job to do,
Do it now!
If it's one you wish was through
Do it now!
If you're sure the job's your own,
Just tackle it alone;
Don't hem and haw and groan—
Do it now!
Don't put off a bit of work,
Do it now!
It doesn't pay to shirk,
Do it now!
If you want to fill a place
And be useful to the race,
Just get up and take a brace,
Do it now!

If you have an item of news, please send up The Ledger, Telephone 33, and let us have it.

Both Circuit and County Courts convene today.

Messrs. Burr and John Richardson will move their families to a farm near Georgetown the first of March.

The late George R. Daulton was a member of the Fifty-fourth Mounted Infantry and not the Tenth Cavalry.

The morals of the city can be sized up somewhat by the fact that in January the police made only five arrests.

Department Commander Bausmith was greeted by a fairly good-sized crowd in the Grand Army Hall Saturday night. His talk was sensible and interesting.

Saturday at a meeting of the creditors of Mr. Charles A. Walther, held in the office of Referee Thomas R. Phister, Mr. Harry L. Walsh was elected Trustee of the estate.

On motion of Ellen Harrison it was ordered that she be appointed Administratrix de bonis non of Arthur Harrison, deceased, with Raymond Jefferson and Henry Dickson on bond.

February 15th we will positively give the Diamond Ring away. We will continue to give tickets to those who pay their accounts until this date; also with every $ cash purchase.

According to Mr. George L. Cox's weather report the 5th, 6th, 11th, 20th, 21st and 22d of February, 1897, were all rainy, disagreeable days but it remained for the 5th day of February, 1905, to cap the climax. If there could be a more nasty, disagreeable day than yesterday may the Lord preserve and protect us. The pavements were simply impassable and the middle of the streets was exclusively used by pedestrians.

The C. and O. will, within the next year, make many improvements on the Cincinnati Division. At Huntington, the capacity of the shops will be doubled, and this division will be double tracked throughout. Russell has been made a freight division terminal, and the capacity of the shops and roundhouse will be increased. In addition, the company has purchased 500 acres of land just below Russell for $75,000, to be used for additional tracks.

The wedding of Miss Henrietta Davis to Mr. Herbert Frankenberg of Charleston, W. Va., will take place today at high noon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Davis, in Market street. The ceremony will be performed by Rabbi Volmer of Charleston. Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Levi and two children, Nanette and Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Eisman, Mr. and Mrs. A. Mayer and Miss Edith Eisman and Mr. Sidney Eisman are here from Portsmouth to attend the nuptials.

AN UGLY FALL

Mrs. Martha Power Sustains Broken Arm in Market Street

Saturday afternoon at 5:20 o'clock, as Mrs. Martha Power was passing up Market and when opposite Mr. Ben B. Poyntz's residence, she fell and broke her right arm at the wrist.

Dr. J. B. Taulbee attended the unfortunate lady, and at this hour she is getting along as well as could be expected.

Mrs. Power has the sympathy of her many friends in the misfortune that has befallen her.

Market street above Third is exceedingly dangerous such weather as we are now having.

During the past fourteen months at least a half dozen people have had a limb broken by receiving falls between Third and Fourth streets in Market.

A GREAT DAY

The Sunday Evangelistic Services Were Largely Attended

Despite the ice paved streets people wended their way to the Baptist Church at 8:30 a. m. yesterday, where a consecration service was held. This was an uplift to all present, and was only a foregleam of the other services of the day.

At the hour of 3 p. m. the First M. E. Church, South, was filled with women to hear Dr. Ely. Prof. Pearman sang his best, and the rich ringing melody of his voice inspired all hearts. Dr. Ely delivered a short practical address, to the delight of all.

At 3:30 the Washington Opera-house was nearly filled with men. Never, perhaps, in the religious history of Maysville has there assembled so large an audience of men. They came from all departments of life and it was an inspiring sight. Led by Prof. Pearman, with Dr. Barbour at the piano, they sang with hearty good will. The men seemed to catch the spirit of the meeting and let themselves loose.

The male quartette sang a selection, which was encored; then Prof. Pearman sang "The Holy City," which was heartily encored. The Professor sings this grand old song to perfection. It was never better rendered than on this occasion.

Dr. Ely delivered a strong, stirring address on the subject, "Nothing Hid." He brought out the great truths, which we are liable to forget, that we are making our own records now—today. We can hide nothing in our lives but what it will come out. We are revealing ourselves in our everyday life, though we may be unconscious of the fact. He pressed home with telling force the import of a pure life.

Many responded with requests for prayer and stood for a better manhood.

At 7:30 every seat in the Baptist Church was filled and many were standing, although hundreds of chairs had been gathered from the other Churches during the day. This large congregation coming together under almost impossible weather, dangerous to life and limb, was only an expression of the deep interest that is being manifested in the meetings.

The song service was grand, and put many of the older ones back to the days of the old fashion singing school. Prayer was made by Dr. Evans of the First M. E. Church, South, and Prof. Pearman sang a solo that made its way to the heart.

Dr. Ely took his text from Luke, 19:5: "The son of man came to seek and to save that which was lost."

A large number acknowledged Jesus as their Savior, and some expressed a desire to profess him.

The meetings this afternoon and evening promise to be of vital import! The 3 o'clock hour will be devoted to the subject of "Visions."

FRIDAY NIGHT'S SERMON.

Dr. Ely took his text from Second Kings, third chapter and sixteenth verse, "Make this valley full of ditches." He gave in quick graphic sentences the events that led up to the words of the text, then he plunged into the theme of the evening. We note the following pertinent sentences caught on the fly:

There are two sides of religion—man and God. There is an interblending of the Divine and the human. God can do anything with a man if he will let him. This text is an object lesson of a corporation—a combine—in ancient times; the three Kings went into an alliance without consulting God, and they got into a hole—a rut.

You can't cut God out of your life without running against snags; when a man's pocket-book is touched we get close to a man's religion; we can't live without God. He is in every drop of water, every spark of light, every mouthful we eat.

Men wait until they fall down into some hole before they call on God for help; the Preacher need have no fear of losing his job—he'll come in somewhere, even if it is only at a funeral; men often reserve their religion until they get sick and about to die, then they make good resolutions if God will only restore them to health, but as soon as they get out with the boys they smash their resolutions all up. Two things never change—human nature and God; a man can be ten thousand miles from God and yet be right here; it is a wonderful thing to catch the message of the age—may Maysville catch the message.

God wants obedience not sacrifice; you can only limit God's blessing by the preparation you make; there are lots of smart people in a community who can do things better than the other fellow; religion is a very practical thing, and I have no use for a man's religion that is bottled up. One man can keep ten men from working, but it takes ten men to get one to work for God; if we expect God to save Maysville there must be instruments—people digging the valley full of ditches. The trouble is not with God, it is with us. It is not a question of joining that Church or this Church, or giving up that or the other, but go to work. There is too much formality, too much creed, too much theology—we must be a channel, a trench; there is not a person here but can dig a ditch of blessing into human hearts.

SAMUEL H. PILES, just elected to the United States Senate from Washington, is a Kentuckian. The only thing I see wrong is the statement that he was born in Smithland. Doesn't seem possible that he escaped being born in Maysville.

WHILE the projectors are casting about for a name for Cincinnati's big new hotel, how would "The No-Tip Inn" do? Perhaps "Anti-Tip" would roll off the tongue more smoothly; but, whether the name be adopted or not, the plan would be a winner.

THE Supreme Court of the United States having decided that the Beef Trust is a "conspiracy to fix prices on fresh meats," and consequently a violation of the Sherman Anti-Trust Law, just let me know how much cheaper you can buy a tough beefsteak.

REFERRING to the compliments that have been passing between Governor BECKHAM and Senator BLACKBURN, "Savoyard" writes from Washington—

"The Governor says JOE is not fit to be Senator, and JOE says BECKHAM is not fit to be Governor. The best thing Old Kentucky could do is to take both of them at their word and send both to private life as soon as possible. BECKHAM took an office to which he was not elected, and BLACKBURN paid the highest price for a Senatorship any man ever paid in our history. The friend and the beneficiary, in peace, of JOHN SANFORD—his comrade in war—and eulogist, in death, the grave was not green over him when JOE BLACKBURN began to fetch and carry for BILL GOEBEL, and it was GOEBEL who made him Senator. No other man that I ever heard of in American history ever paid such a price for any office."

SCORE another for the Kentucky taxgatherer. Over at Lexington a few days ago, while the body of THOMAS LYONS lay in the casket preparatory to the funeral service, grief-stricken relatives and heirs were served with papers in a suit filed by the State Auditor's Agent and local Sheriff for back taxes on $225,000 worth of personalty, claimed to have been unanswered for three years. Perhaps the energetic fee-hunters thought Mr. LYONS would depart from the usual custom and take his wealth with him.

SOMEBODY out in California started a story to the effect that fruit growers there had decided to import monkeys, which were to be trained to pick prunes for the market and which were to be muzzled to keep them from eating this boarding-house staple. Some people laughed at the story, but not long ago a man in New York submitted to the Commissioner General of Immigration the hypothetical question as to whether the importation of monkeys for such purposes would not in effect be a violation of the contract labor law. Here's another chance for the Sandlot Agitators. This thing must be stopped, even if the monkeys have to join the Union and each one have a Union Label pasted on its tail.

WORMS

"I had for years suffered from what medical men called Dyspepsia and Catarrh of the Stomach. I have enjoyed the best of health ever since. I trust this testimonial will appeal to other sufferers." Chas. Blackstock, 1219 Divinity Place, West Philadelphia, Pa.

AN OPEN LETTER

TO THE PEOPLE OF MAYSVILLE.

From John C. Pecor, Our Well-Known Druggist.

To Whom It May Concern:

Of late there has been a good deal of discussion in Maysville in regard to advertised medicines and their value—the papers are full of them.

We want to say to every man, woman and child in Maysville that we believe the most valuable preparation of cod liver oil—the best tonic, restorer, health restorer and strength creator—we have ever sold in our store is Vinol.

Vinol is not a patent medicine, it contains no injurious drugs, and it actually does contain all of the medicinal curative elements taken from fresh cods' livers, but without a drop of oil to upset the stomach and retard its work, and, moreover, it is delicious to the taste.

Vinol acts first upon the stomach, tones up the digestive organs, creates an appetite, purifies and enriches the blood and strengthens every organ in the body to do its work as nature intended.

Vinol is recognized throughout the world as the greatest strength creator for old people, weak, sickly women and children, nursing mothers and after a severe sickness.

Vinol cures hacking coughs, chronic colds, bronchitis and all throat and lung troubles. Unequaled to create an appetite and to make those who are too thin fat, rosy and healthy.

Vinol is sold everywhere on a positive guarantee that, if it does not give satisfaction, the entire purchase money will be refunded. JOHN C. PECOR, Druggist.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Mason Circuit Court convened this morning.

Up to 9 o'clock this morning there was nothing farther in regard to the Tobacco Growers' Association than that contained in the Cincinnati papers of Saturday, in which it was stated that the Banks of that city had agreed to furnish the necessary capital, and that Mr. Stewart had met with success in New York and was signing up the papers to complete the deal.

GROWERS DISCOURAGED

A Number Begin To Withdraw From the Tobacco Association

The Burley tobacco situation remains unchanged, and so far as is known, no word has been received from the Finance Committee, which has been in New York for several days consulting the capitalists for the purpose of getting the contracts for the money to finance the organization.

Many of the growers who pledged their support to the company several months ago and who have remained firm under the promises of President W. B. Hawkins have become discouraged the last few days, and have begun to withdraw from the company, and announce they will sell their tobacco to other firms.

Evangelist Ely, flanked on either side by Mr. James B. Wood and Secretary Brown of the Y. M. C. A., did a little business on their own hook Saturday night. They visited all the saloons in the city and left cards, inviting the men to the Opera-house meeting yesterday. They were received courteously and politely by the proprietors and habitués of the place. A few made their escape by way of the back door, however. In deference to the call every saloon in the city closed its doors yesterday and the proprietors and employees attended the meeting.

MET SATURDAY

Shareholders of Tobacco Warehouse Transact Important Business

Yesterday's Cincinnati Enquirer contained a dispatch from this city stating that the American Tobacco Company had bought a majority of the stockholders' shares in the big plant in this city and would immediately begin the manufacture of plug tobacco.

The facts in the case are about these: Saturday a meeting of the Directors and owners of the grounds and buildings was held in the office of Mr. W. W. Ball for the purpose of properly signing the lease and winding up other minor matters.

There was nothing said or done in regard to selling or buying the plant.

The plant as it stands today cost the stockholders $54,000; the agreement and lease with the American is that they are to pay 10% on the cost of the plant as a yearly rental—$5,400—with the option at any time of buying the grounds and buildings at cost price—$54,000. This is the way matters now stand.

It is hoped, however, that some day the American will buy and start a manufactory plant.

TUMORS CONQUERED

SERIOUS OPERATIONS AVOIDED

Unqualified Success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the Case of Mrs. Fannie D. Fox.

One of the greatest triumphs of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the conquering of woman's dread enemy, Tumor.

The growth of a tumor is so slowly that frequently its presence is not suspected until it is far advanced.

So-called "wandering pains" may come from its early stages, or the presence of danger may be made manifest by profuse menstruation, accompanied by unusual pain, from the ovaries down the groin and thighs.

If you have mysterious pains, if there are indications of inflammation or displacement, don't wait for time to confirm your fears and go through the horrors of a hospital operation; secure Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound right away and begin its use.

Mrs. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., will give you her advice free of all charge if you will write her about yourself. Your letter will be seen by women only.

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:— I take the liberty to congratulate you on the success I have had with your wonderful medicine. Eighteen months ago my monthly periods stopped. Shortly after I felt so badly that I submitted to a thorough examination by a physician and was told that I had a tumor on the uterus and would have to undergo an operation.

"Soon after I read one of your advertisements and decided to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. After trying five bottles as directed the tumor is entirely gone. I have been examined by a physician and he says I have no signs of a tumor now. It has also brought my monthly periods around once more, and I am entirely well."—Fannie D. They still go at 15c, 20c and 25c. No money in them to meet the prices, but they are snags for you. FINEST TEAS bought directly from the importers. Can't be equalled in Maysville, either in price or quality. PERFECTION FLOUR always gives satisfaction. If you want the best at all times don't buy any other brand. You know I would not sell it and recommend it for sixteen years continuously if it was not what I claim for it—always the best. Those extra fine fall catch MACKEREL are going like hot cakes just because they are what I recommend them to be—the finest that can be bought. Remember, I guarantee everything I sell to be just as recommended. If I tell you an article is the best, and you find it is not, return it and get your money back. At the extremely low prices I have named on these goods I must ask my customers to pay cash when they wish to take advantage of the prices.

A species of sheep common in Syria is so encumbered by the weight of its tail that the shepherds fix a piece of thin board to the under part, where it is not covered with thick wool, to prevent it being torn by the bushes, etc. Some have small wheels affixed to facilitate the dragging of these boards after them. The tail of a common sheep of this sort usually weighs fifteen pounds or upward, while that of a large species, after being well fattened, will weigh fifty pounds.

Death Friday in Louisville of Noted Baptist Divine

The Rev. Dr. Joseph Walter Warder, a noted Baptist divine, died Friday evening last at Louisville of the infirmities of age.

Dr. Warder was a native of Logan county and was born October 13th, 1825.

He came from a family of Preachers, his father, William Warder, being one of two brothers noted in the history of the denomination in Virginia and Kentucky, and a pioneer in the work in this state.

Dr. Warder's theological education was received at Newton and Princeton Theological Seminaries, and he entered the Ministry at the age of twenty-three.

His first Pastorate was in this city, where he remained three years, and where he met Miss Elizabeth M. Tureman, whom he married in 1852.

Dr. Warder left the Maysville Church to accept a call to the First Baptist Church in Frankfort.

Deceased is survived by his wife and five children—Henry T. Warder of Louisville, W. M. of Spokane, Wash., E. M. of Memphis, H. M. of Jeffersonville and Mrs. Elizabeth M. Warder of Philadelphia.

There was one addition at the Third Street M. E. Church at yesterday morning's service.

In the cargo of the Doric, which arrived at San Francisco from the orient, were 3,179 bales of Japanese raw silk, valued at about $3,325,300. There were also 5,568 chests of tea. Altogether, it was the most valuable cargo that ever crossed the Pacific.

The amount of tobacco used in China is enormous. Most of it is produced by the consumers or in the immediate vicinity of where it is consumed, and does not get into the trade reports at all. The foreign tobacco trade has scarcely scratched the surface of the field.

GONE FOR GOOD.

No Reason For Any Maysville Sufferer to Fear the Return of It.

How often the pain returns to the aching back when you think you are well rid of it. No fear of such a return after using Doan's Kidney Pills. They make bad backs well and weak backs strong and keep them so. The testimony of Maysville people proves this claim a fact. You can readily ratify such fact by the following:

John Wallingford, living at the corner of Commerce and East Second streets, Maysville, Ky., says: "I first procured Doan's Kidney Pills in 1899 at J. Jas. Wood & Son's Drugstore, and they stopped an attack of back-ache, one of many which had annoyed me for some time. My wife at that time gave for publication in our local papers a statement telling of the great benefit I had derived from Doan's Kidney Pills, and now, some five years later, I can say that the cure then effected has been complete and permanent. My back and kidneys have never given me the least cause for complaint. Mrs. Wallingford also appreciates the value of Doan's Kidney Pills from personal experience with them. She suffered most acutely with back-ache, especially at night, and Doan's Kidney Pills promptly and thoroughly cured her."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute

On a Strike....

Buyers of furniture seem to have gone on a strike. The reason is not apparent. It is certainly not on account of stock, for we have on hand the best stock in our history. We are carrying a far better stock than the trade justifies. We are trying SO hard to please YOU.

Willing to Arbitrate.

We are certain that this strike is not caused by price. Statistics prove that our prices offer you far better opportunities than any other store. We are certain that our prices are right, but come in and talk it over. We are willing to arbitrate the present strike.

Come In; Let's Talk It Over.

We want your business; in fact, must have the home trade to support the store that we have given you.

A Matter of Pride

Is our beautiful store to us, and we believe that you, too, are proud of your furniture store, for you realize that few towns can show one as pretty.

We Are Trying So Hard to Please You.
